

Homework
Hotline
volunteer
Esther
Wong
wins
scholarship

WEST SIDE NEWS

Less
restrictive
charter
school
laws
sought

Concert at McKendree UMC to benefit Bethlehem Centers

McKendree United Methodist Church and the Nashville Praise Symphony announced they will host a benefit concert on Saturday, May 16, to support the Bethlehem Centers of Nashville, a social service agency promoting self-reliance and positive life choices for children, youths and adults in Middle Tennessee.

The concert will take place from 5 to 6 p.m. at McKendree UMC, 523 Church St. Admission is free to the public, and donations for Bethlehem Centers will be welcomed.

The Nashville Praise Symphony and Bethlehem Centers' youth group will perform songs including contemporary orchestra arrangements of hymns and modern praise songs along with a few standard classical selections. The Nashville Praise Symphony will also sell CDs of its previous recordings at the concert and will donate a portion of proceeds to the Bethlehem Centers. McKendree United Methodist Church choir will not perform but will host the event. After the concert, Bethlehem Centers of Nashville will host a reception and provide facility tours at its main campus at 1417 Charlotte Ave.

For more information, contact Amber Williams at 329-3386, ext. 104.